

Timothy Bockus

Director of Public Works
Town of East Hartford

Tim Bockus was appointed as the Director of Public Works in 2011. As the Public Works Director, Mr. Bockus oversees the seven divisions of Street, Waste, Fleet, Facilities, Engineering, Park Maintenance, and Administration that make up the Public Works Department. He is the Town's Tree Warden and is an ex-officio member of East Hartford's Beautification Commission, Insurance Committee, and Executive Safety Committee.

Prior to his appointment as Director Mr. Bockus held the position of Operations Engineer in the Town's Engineering Division for 21 years.

Currently Mr. Bockus serves as East Hartford's representative on the Transportation, Bicycle-Pedestrian, and Municipal Services Committees for the Capital Region Council of Governments. He also serves at the request of the Commissioner on DEEP's Statewide Vegetative Management Task Force and currently sits on the DOT's Public Advisory Committee for the I-84 Hartford Project. Mr. Bockus is also a member of the American Public Works Association, Connecticut Association of Street and Highway Officials, and Epsilon Pi Tau, the international society for professions in technology.

Mr. Bockus holds a Bachelors of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering and a Master's degree in Public Policy from Trinity College in Hartford, as well as additional studies in Architectural Engineering at Roger Williams College in Bristol, Rhode Island. During his academic career he conducted research on alternative vehicle fuel emissions and his findings were published by the Combustion Institute. His graduate level research focused on regionalism issues in Connecticut and assessed the implications of municipal government participation in regional planning organizations in Connecticut. He holds numerous professional certifications and licenses including Connecticut Road Master, Underground Storage Tank Operator, EIT, and NICET Heavy Highway Construction.
